STANSFIELD TURNER

19 August 1980

Dear Dick,

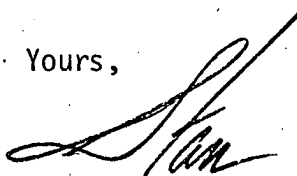

Thanks for both of the photos you sent. They are great reminders of a most delightful reunion.

Sorry to hear you found the reunion too much of a smash! I hadn't noticed, but I'm sure you snapped out of it quickly.

It was particularly nice for Pat and me to be back for the first time since our 10th and to find that no one looks older!

Best from us both. Thanks.

Yours,

STANSFIELD TURNER

Dear Stan,

After the Reunion, I had the pictures I shot and liked duplicated and sent with a hand-written note to each of the 39 of our classmates who were identifiable, keeping one for myself (you should have received the one showing you and Pat and "The Other Turner"). Then I had some triplicated for the college which they were to return, but haven't. So this one is quadruplicated.

It's really a great shot of you, but we had to go back to the developer twice before we could get most of Webster's face in it. Upon receiving it, he said it was better being half-faced than two-faced!

Reunion was a smash. In more than one way. We don't drink much, and never after dinner. But either somebody slipped me a Mickey or I got somebody else's drink or something. Lynn Goodnough assured me the next day I did nothing disgraceful. Helen tells me I introduced you to her and I'm glad you met her. When on the occasion the following week of a regular physical, I told my doctor I didn't remember everything of that night, he said that's okay—Reunions come only every 5 years.

Good seeing you and Pat and everyone there. Too bad we can't get everybody back, but it was great for those of us who made it.

Cheers!

Cordially,
